Tempo di Caprice.

by A. J. KING

KARN ORGAN

The musical score is written for piano and organ. It consists of eight systems of music. Each system has a piano part on the right and an organ part on the left. The piano part is written in treble and bass clefs, while the organ part is written in a single staff. The tempo is marked 'Tempo di Caprice.' and the key signature has two flats. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings like 'p' (piano) and 'f' (forte). A circular stamp is visible on the left side of the page, partially overlapping the organ part.

KARN PIANO

The musical score is written for piano and consists of eight systems of music. The first system includes a treble and bass staff with a key signature of two flats and a common time signature. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The third system is labeled 'Trio.' and features a change in the bass line. The fourth and fifth systems continue the piece with various dynamics like f and p. The sixth system shows a more complex melodic line in the treble. The seventh and eighth systems conclude the piece with triplets and a final cadence. The paper is aged and has a torn edge on the left side.

THE KARN PIANO

ENTIRELY NEW DESIGN

The.... Pianauto

The Pianauto is the greatest of all "piano-players." It will play on any piano any piece of music ever written. It can be played by anyone without musical knowledge, and its operation is so simple and light that a child can play it with ease. In the total absence of fatigue involved, it differs immensely from all other piano-players, and it is also vastly superior in capacity for "expression."
